

Adaptive Sports Northwest Welcomes Dave Hanna as Executive Director

Dave Hanna comes to Adaptive Sports Northwest with 18+ years of experience in for-profit and non-profit settings in such roles as facilitator, director, moderator, development manager, trainer, university instructor, board member, volunteer and mediator. His most recent role was Membership Development Manager with the Multnomah Athletic Club, which he held for 11 years. Both his undergraduate and graduate work took place at Oregon State University where he studied health sciences, conflict resolution, group process, and communication.

Dave will be in charge of overseeing day-to-day operations, growth initiatives, and programming opportunities for the diverse constituency served by Adaptive Sports Northwest. In line with the organizations strategic planning initiatives, Dave will be instrumental in increasing the outreach and exposure of the opportunities ASNW offers, comprised of fitness, recreation and competitive sport for youth and adults with physical disabilities. Dave will lead a talented team focusing on efforts to strengthen and expand sponsorship relations, program offerings, member and participant satisfaction, and overall resource efficiencies.
